I, Katie Dodt, leave...

- Behind by favorite word, "atrocious."
- To the juniors the "If you hate math and you know it clap your hands" song.
- To the freshmen three years of unpleasant times.
- To the next senior class good memories.
- To whomever gets my textbooks, you're lucky...they've never been opened.
- To Coach Jones oatmeal raisin cookies.
- To math class, my craziness that drove Ms. Loughmiller crazy.
- To Jaime Carroll, nothing...because we will be friends for a long time.
- To Ms. Simmons her voice that I used to imitate—I'm going to miss you so much!
- To Coach Roark good memories of a good four years of the class of 2006.
- To Jamie Bruzeau her favorite person. ☺
- To the Lutheran High yearbook staff my $240 that I spent on yearbooks that I never got...I better get them.
- To Dionne the craziness and all the years of making fun of people.
- To Ms. Loughmiller the hope that you will have another kid in your class like me.
- To Dr. Wilson my confused look in chemistry that I used when I had no idea what you were talking about...which was all the time.
- To Ms. Dombrowski her "smart people" games.

I, Jamie Bruzeau, leave...

- Holly Murry the opportunity to have the best 4 years of high school!
- Victoria Dehon the best 4 years of your life in high school.
- Gary Cloutre as many Japanese midgets as you can find, a call to mama so you can get in trouble, a day off of work, and wet noodles.
- Sarah Rittler the grass in my lawn to be mowed and to cut down my tree so you can get some McDonald's fries.
- Katie Dodt the patience she needs to deal with her kids and Ms. Simmons.
- Jonathan Dantin my voice and back massages.
- Jaime Carroll the ability to live with "it" and all my love because I'm sure I'll miss my twin.
- Nicole Hughes 20 packs of Orbit gum.
- Ashley Hopkins my sweetness and my humor.
- Kersti Dantin Cory's number and the ability to keep her mouth shut.
- Trenton Smith a Pillsbury Doughboy.
- Becky Lacey the permission to decorate my "wedding."
- A whole bunch of stuff for my little brother.
- Dionne Winn my craziness and love for killer whales.
- Brent Borgstede all those crazy times on the phone and with our friends that we had, all of our inside jokes, and our friendship party at LC! Haha
- Nick Farley my heart since he is the love of my life, haha.

- Jess a Serrano's pen and tanning lotion.
- Jairus one last homecoming dance as king and queen.
- Ms. Dombrowski a bottle of aspirin for all those wonderful kids.
- Nick Campos a new "B.G. Buddy" and someone else to look out the window with and play the car game.

I, Rachel Strawn, leave...

- Everyone I leave behind a pack of gum to get you through the day!
- My freshmen, Kersti, my locker and my hope that you'll have as much fun as I did in my 4 years at LHS.
- The class of 2007...hope that your senior year goes smoother than ours did!
- Becky Lacey my 2nd grade nametag...wear it well!
- Katie Dodt a pack of Phase 10 cards, hope you find someone new to play cards with in class.
- Dr. Wilson my thanks for putting up with two classes that can only pay attention for no more than 5 minutes at a time...not that we were that bad.
- The yearbook staff my confidence that you will continue to create awesome yearbooks...and even have them done on time.
- Ms. Dantin my thanks for being the best teacher I ever had! And I leave you my hope that you can deal with the "insaneness" that is LHS.
- Ian a brand new Sudoku puzzle book...so I can do some myself!
- Kersti all my spectacular grades and my textbooks...hope you use them more than I did!
- All my fellow seniors, my love and thanks for the four great years we've spent together, I'll remember them always.

I, Justin Duplantier, leave...

- Gabe Martinez the coolest member in band award, passed down from me to him.
- Ana all of my MSI (mindless self-indulgence) compact discs.
- Ben my dumbbells, so he can continue to workout while he's not at school.
- Michael Case my Michael Jackson CDs and some white gloves.
- Greg a bottle of aspirin for his headaches (Random, I know).
- Jaime Carroll my old novels.
- Justin Dabney anything I can find with the name "Justin" on it.

I, Dionne Winn, leave...

- Anna Martin a case of blank CDs.
- Will Andrews a ride home from school in my 2006 Monte Carlo.
- Nichole Hughes my attitude.
- Caitlin, my freshman, the best years in high school.
- Victoria Wolfe my pink Louis Vutton purse.
- Sabetrice my sparkling pink purse.
- Ms. Dombrowski a better 6th period English IV class and another great year of Creative Writing.
- Ms. Nahrwold a better 1st period class and a can of America's Choice spaghetti.
- Ms. Roy a great laugh...HAW HAW.
- Coach Jones another baby girl when I leave.
- Steven the ability to fight back.
- Maria a day to go shopping with me at Lakeside.
- Gabby the proper way to ask for lunch.
- Katie Dodt to still have the ability to imitate Ms. Simmons.
- Jamie Bruzeau my boldest.
- Coach Roark the ability to do things on his own.
- Jaime Carroll more good luck in the future.

I, Brittany Warden, leave...

- Misty brutal honesty, a never-ending supply of mustard packets, a big favor for introducing me to John, a new Bonnabel twin, and 10 minutes...
- Lilli all the can tops in the world and a lifetime supply of Butterfingers because Germany isn't cool enough for them yet!
- Kelsey, BJ, and Tommy a walk, not run, around the block...Joey can run if he wants but he'll grow out of it.
- Cory Chaisson the ability to be different...not crazy.
- The cheerleaders the ability to make up for our small group by looking hotter than the other teams...and being truly ghetto at heart.
- Ally and Chelby the ability to make Spanish class worth going to...more specifically, Ally, your advice on boys and the tingle. Chelby, freedom! (slap).
- I leave "Flamin Fairy" my heart...the brick wall is coming down.
- BJ pellet guns, all my love (not like that), the solution to all my problems, and our senior trip...
- Kelsey and Kersti the workout room in Houston, stolen towels, and the clock battery thief?!?!)
- Victoria Bowman random dances at stop lights.
- Victoria Wolfe the slippers on the roof, dead bodies in the back field, and the evil spirits who will get you if you don't pray.
- Tommy the attempt to free your people from the mental institution, freedom from God's shenanigans of gravity, the Barbie Girl song, Highschool Musical, a bathtub of Oreos, and for the burn to go away..."indeed."
- Josh Bravender twizzlers and water...but no one to make fun of!
- The class of 2007 all my love and a great hurricane-free senior year...deep down I really am one of y'all.
- Kelsey, mi amor, I leave you my heart, every kind of marker possible, Highschool Musical, the ability to blow a bubble and get knocked out by Ecole's soccer team..."Marshall"?!?!)

I, Ana Hoyle, leave...

- Tyler a dear plastic cup, my bench warming abilities, and little scraps of paper with random words on them.
- Jess a purse that isn't as big as an ice chest and a radar detector so you know where the po-po is when you speed.
- Jaime my chemistry homework and pictures of "the moth" I've drawn.
- Mikey my small metal bar and little birdie tattoos to stick all over yourself.
- Justin my English homework and a deecelishous can of Coke.
- Neil 60¢, my leftovers, and a water hose.
- Dr. Wilson my quotes from Resident Evil and Resident Evil: Apocalypse (although she probably forgot what I'm talking about).
- Jairus my "he-mask ski-mask" and memories of me shooting on the wrong goal freshman year.
- Ivan my amazing basketball skills and an engagement ring.
- Greg the ability to show up to parties and not "run out of gas," "get a flat," or "get pulled over by the cops."
- Ms. Simmons free margaritas and wheat chips from Serranos.
- Dionne a triffilin' Destiny's Child CD and memories from Spanish class last year.
- All the guys in my 7th hour religion class band-aids for those "cut" arms of theirs!
- To Michael Case a trip to Neverland and a big hug and kiss...on the cheek.
- My 4th hour science class peanut butter girl scout cookies, frozen burritos, and my loud, obnoxious laugh.
